 Original Summary of Services

 Amendment (#5)

For services provided from Qwest Corporation (QC) to Qwest LD Corp. (QLDC), a Section 272 affiliate.

Description of Services Provided: Qwest Corporation (QC) will perform miscellaneous general services for Qwest LD Corp (QLDC). Services may include:

General Services: QC may design, analyze and provide daily, weekly and monthly marketing metric and customer usage reports. These reports may include statistical results by order type by product; revenue tracking, call center volumes, service levels and usage. QC may train management and occupational personnel on methods and procedures for customer support care. QC may design and develop the methods and procedures guidelines for customer support care. QC may provide miscellaneous vendor payment support. QC may also provide overall project supervision and support for mechanization requests and system enhancement requests associated with non sales related support activities.

General Customer Support: QC may provide general customer assistance to QLDC customers which may include such functions as processing customer service change requests and processing billing adjustments. In addition, QC may manage in-region QLDC customer correspondence which may include investigation of Primary Interexchange Carrier (PIC) disputes, change requests, rerates and providing letters of information and bill copies to customers. QC will, at no charge to QLDC, confirm with the end user customer by phone that the PIC change was done correctly. Also includes placing billing notes on customer records.

Automated Call Processor Instruction: Upon customer request, the Regional QC Toll Agents will provide basic instructions to QC customers on how to bypass the automated call processor menu to reach a live QLDC Operator. There will be no charge for this service.
